

Children's Charities Attendance Policy

Lessons with students are provided two days each week, for an hour each day. Lessons are held year-round with a few breaks periodically throughout the year. It is expected that families will make necessary arrangements to have their child at every lesson. While we realize life happens, kids get sick, and weather can interrupt plans, consistency is key for children to make positive progress so multiple absences will be cause for dismissal from the program.