

Children's Charities, inc is a locally owned, operated, and funded 501c3 nonprofit organization whose mission is to raise awareness and education of children's disabilities and disadvantages related to language and reading in an effort to prevent unnecessary frustration and struggles.